Deming Man Has Show Orchard That is One of Mar-vels of Territory: Fishing is Good on Gila Now.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald)
Chas. J. O. Jones, County Commissioner, M. M. Killebrew and William H. Wain, left this week for the south, camping and fishing along the Gila river.

Joseph E. Ely has returned from his trip to Montana, where he was one of the principal speakers at the "Night of the Poets" on New Mexico Resources day and again on Monday on Political day, representing the Republican party.

Rev. W. E. Poole brought a peach tree branch to town a day or two ago, cut from one of his three-year-old trees, containing eighteen full, developed peaches. Mr. Poole has one of the show orchards in the valley, and the early production of his young orchard is surpassing his expectations.

Mr. N. A. Bollich and daughter, Ruth, leave this week for the east, where they will spend the winter. Miss Bollich is taking the course at the Boston Conservatory of Music.

J. W. Crowder and J. H. Little of Mesquite, N. M., are visitors in town today. Dr. C. C. Parish of Pecos, Tex., who a month ago took up land here and decided on Deming for his future home, has just returned to town, and this time permanently, it is thought.

Frank Hoover of Columbus, Kan., is in town looking for a location. His brother, W. C. Hoover, a prominent business man of Sapulpa, spent considerable time in coming last winter and was so favorably impressed with this valley that he was the means of Frank coming now to look Deming over.

Mr. Frank Hoover has just completed a trip through the north-west and California so he is in position to judge between the different locations he has visited and will make his decision when he returns to confer with his brother.

DE LA BARRA AGAIN DECLINES OFFICE
Movement Instituted By His Friends to Offer Him As a
Rival for Madero Receives Setback By His Refusal.

Mexico City, Aug. 11.—President de la Barra in a letter of appreciation has addressed a letter to the editor of El Manana, explaining clearly his reasons for not accepting the candidacy for the presidency.

The president's letter was called forth by a letter which was published in El Manana, urging that the president's nomination be carried on over his head and without his consent.

Mr. de la Barra expresses his appreciation of the sentiments of esteem by which such demonstrations are actuated, but in the clearest possible manner he gives his friends to understand that he in no way could become a candidate to succeed himself.

In the first place, he recalls to their minds that, upon the condition to remain out of the coming race, he took upon himself the high duties of provisional president of the republic, and from that position he cannot depart.

BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS SHOW INCREASE

Financial Standing of New Mexico Institutions Proven
Strong By Report of Traveling Auditor's Report.

It has been said that there is no surer indicator of the prosperity of any section of the country than the standing of the financial institutions of the district. Hence the report of the traveling Auditor John Joerns, who has recently compiled the statistics in the department of building and loan associations is an indication of the sound basis of progress that is manifest in New Mexico. ## RAISING OF FIGS IN TEXAS PAYS

Experiments in Raising the Delicious Fruit Have Been Successful and Large Crop
Has Been Placed on Market

San Antonio, Tex., Aug. 11.—The big crop of southwest Texas has been so profitable this year that much interest is being taken in the cultivation of that most delicious fruit. It appears that every fig tree in southwest Texas has been loaded this year and the fruit is of the very best quality. In a number of instances farmers report as high as $12 a tree in fruit gathered. When it is known that about 500 trees will grow on an acre, some notion of the profit from growing this fruit may be obtained. Near this city one firm is preparing to plant more than 400 acres of figs and already has several thousand trees out. That which is true here in the matter of renewed interest in the culture is present in many localities. For a time farmers and fruit growers have had little direct attention to the cultivation of figs, planting the trees, in most instances, along irrigation ditches and leaving them to flourish as best they could. The product from these trees has been such a source of profit that there is a general awakening all over the south-west section of the state and in a number of places plans are formulated for the establishment of preserving plants. That the Texas fig has made good has been demonstrated beyond a quibble.

HOPES TO LIVE BEYOND CENTURY MARK

(Wagon Mount, Panhandle)
Dr. J. R. Walter, and old timer in this section, was a visitor here this week, renewing old acquaintances. Dr. Walter was at Ft. Union with the army in the early days, and has lived in the west for many years. He is 86 years old, but moves around like a boy.

Dr. Walter is from a remarkable family. His father was killed at the age of 25 in a run away accident, and was strong and hearty up to the time of the accident, with promise of many more years. His mother is still living in St. Louis, Mo., and is 119 years old. He has several brothers and sisters living, all of whom are older than he. Dr. Walter counts on living to be 100 years old, or more.

HE PROPOSED ON A SKYROCKET

St. Louis, Aug. 11.—A skyrocket romance that originated in St. Louis a little more than a year ago led to the marriage in Ashland, Ore., of George Mold, Jr., of Alton, and Miss Sophia Hindell. News of the wedding has just been received by relatives in Alton.

CLOVIS GETS TWO MORE TRAINS

Indications Are That Passenger Service Through That Town Will Be Materially
Increased; Store Destroyed.

(Special Correspondence to the Herald)
Clovis, N. M., Aug. 11.—There is every reason that this fall will witness the placing in service of one and possibly two more passenger trains through Clovis. One of these will probably be in connection with the Frisco-Santa Fe joint traffic arrangement. This train probably will come to the Santa Fe at Alton, Okla., from the Frisco and run through to Los Angeles or San Francisco, striking the coast line at Beulah instead of going to Ashcroft or Albuquerque. The other train, it is rumored, will start at Amarillo and run through to Albuquerque. It is understood that the company is now planning for heavier power to handle the new trains, which will be much heavier than the trains now being run, and the present power is considered too small to handle them.

Mrs. Lucian Snuffer, one of the teachers in the Clovis high school last year, died Monday in Artesia of heart trouble, with which she had been afflicted for a year or more. Her sudden death came as a great shock to her friends and family. Her brother at Mineral Wells, Texas, was wired at once and he will take charge of the remains. She leaves one son, Bryan, 11 years of age.

The Childrens rooming house and feed store in Texico, eight miles east of Clovis, were destroyed in fire yesterday about 10 o'clock. The origin of the fire is not known and it was discovered too late to save anything of value. The furniture in the rooming house destroyed was valued at about $2,000. J. W. Childress, the owner of the house, and his family were living in it. None of the family were injured. The feed store was empty. Some valuable personal property in the way of eat glass china and jewelry belonging to Mrs. Childress was also lost.
